Interesting. Inspiring. Invigorating.

From the Strand Theatre to the Grover Museum, to Indiana Live! Casino there's always something interesting, inspiring and invigorating going on in Shelby County. Springtime beckons thoroughbred racing at Indiana Downs, the downtown Farmer's Market to the Saint Joseph Spring Fair. Summertime is ushered in by the Fairland Festival and Fish Fry to the historic Shelby County Fair, Antique Tractor Show, Coca-Cola Car Show, unique Morristown Derby Days and the Bears of Blue River Festival. Fall brings Anderson Orchard to the forefront - with their over 36 varieties of apples ready to pick! Shelby County Arts Fest is a great time for acquiring some great artisan pieces - and the perennial favorite Pioneer Fair reenacts the heritage of days gone by. And let's not forget the Holiday Parade and Holiday Home Tour in the Winter! We have fun going on all year round! Give us a call or visit our website to learn more!

SAVING TOGETHER. IT'S WHY WE'RE CALLED COOPERATIVES.

For over 60 years, Hoosier Energy and our electric cooperatives have been providing clean and reliable electricity to thousands of homes, farms, schools, and businesses across Central and Southern Indiana. And for more than three decades, we've been a sponsor of the Indiana Festival Guide, which helps promote a valuable and dynamic homegrown industry – Indiana tourism. It's one way we help build more active, vibrant communities. Another way is by helping consumers use energy more efficiently. It's all part of our commitment to you. Your Touchstone Energy Cooperatives and you. Together We Save.
